

MAJOR AND MINOR.

The REVIEW furnishes one superior instrumental duet each month.

A ballet, "La belle endormie," by Tchaikowsky, is soon to be produced at St. Petersburg.

An interesting new composition, "The Dream of Jubal," by Dr. A. C. Mackenzie, has been produced at Liverpool, and will soon be heard in London.

The New York papers announce that Emma Berger Ferritt, a pretty young woman of St. Louis, will soon make her appearance in opera. She is twenty-three years old, has studied in Germany, and has a repertoire of fifteen operas.

It is definitely settled that Mme. Patti begins a tour of the United States in December, giving thirty performances.

Now, Patti comes to say "Good-Bye,"
And take our shekels with a sigh.
"Alas!" she says, amidst her tears,
"How can I stay away for years!
My art, my soul, my very life
And sweet exemption from all strife
Depend upon these last farewells,
That soothe dear Nicolini's spells."

"Ah! what a sight! Four thousand a night.
It luminous grows, and nobody knows
How my rising emotion is quelled by this lotion."

Miss Van Zandt had an immense success in Madrid with "Lackmè." Twenty recalls! The aria of the bells was encored. The Queen and Infanta Isabella were present at the representation.

All pieces contained in any copy of the REVIEW can be had of Kunkel Bros., the publishers, or any first class music house in the country in regular sheet music form. Parties stating otherwise are falsifiers.

A new Russian pianist, named Sapelnikoff, is about to be introduced to the London public by Tchaikoffsky, who accompanies him from St. Petersburg. Sapelnikoff is a pupil of Sophie Menter, and is said to be "one of the very greatest of modern school" of pianists.

Another story of Dr. von Bülow, who, unlike his countrymen generally, is said to have great contempt for titles. A singer at one of the Philharmonic Concerts addressed him three times as "Herr Professor." He took no notice the first and second time, but the third was too much for him. "Madame," he said, "if you wish to offend me at any cost, call me Court pianist."

The Boston Symphony Orchestra.—We have the pleasure to announce the return of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, for a series of two concerts to be given in May. This organization, of which Mr. Gericke is Director, is composed of the best musicians in the country, and is the pride of Boston. Its last appearance here was one of the grandest treats ever allowed us. It is no wonder that the retirement of Mr. Gericke, who is one of the greatest conductors of the age, created such a stir in the East where his masterly work had given the public the finest orchestral concerts it had ever heard. Now that he is about leaving us, we feel assured his programmes here will be something never to be forgotten.

Delibes' "Kassia."—Musical circles are again discussing Delibes' lately terminated work, "Kassia," which was begun for Heilbronn, lately deceased, and ended with Van Zandt in view as the probable heroine. The subject of the book is founded on a melancholy Norwegian legend, and the ballet is an important adjunct, the music of which is derived from celebrated Scandinavian melodies, varied and transcribed by M. Delibes with his usual elegant skill.

Eruptions indicate impure blood and a deranged stomach. External treatment is of no avail. The safest and most effective remedy for these complaints is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"I was troubled with discoloration of the skin, which showed itself in ugly dark patches. No external treatment did more than temporary good. Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected a complete cure."—T. W. Boddy, River st., Lowell, Mass.

"No medicine could be better adapted to cleansing the blood of such impurities as manifest themselves on the skin by pimples, blotches, and small ulcers, than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I have used it for that purpose with the most gratifying results."—J. R. Roseberry, M. D., Wharton, Texas.

"I have prescribed Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my practice for a number of years. I find it to work admirably where an alterative is indicated."—T. Porter, M. D., Cerro Gordo, Tenn.

REVIEW OF CONCERTS.

Choral Society.—The third concert of the St. Louis Choral Society was given Thursday Feb. 28, and notwithstanding a dreadful storm raged outside, the auditorium was comfortably filled. A new departure from the usual religious and ponderous productions that mark the work of this society was taken, and Massenet's "Eve" was the principal feature of the evening. This work is exceedingly sensuous in its character, and combines the orchestral ideas of Wagner and the melodic style of the old Italian and French works. It is beautifully characteristic and was received with marked satisfaction and applause by the audience. The unaccompanied chorus was redemanded by reason of its exquisite beauty and the artistic manner in which it was given. The soloists Mrs. Cunningham, Messrs. Porteous and Cousins acquitted themselves creditably. The Cantata was followed by a miscellaneous programme including the Inflammatus from Rossini's Stabat Mater, solo by Mrs. Cunningham and the "Toreador" from Carmen which was sung by Mr. Porteous in a brilliant and artistic manner. He was loudly encored and compelled to repeat it. A number worthy of special mention was the serenade for strings by Dvorak which was interpreted by Mr. Otten in a manner that calls for much commendation. The fourth and last concert will be given in May. The society has in preparation the "Damnation of Faust" by Berlioz. There is a great need of good readers in the male portion of the chorus and such as have an inclination to join in the production of this work will be gladly received into the society. Mr. Otten's residence is 2344 Olive where he can be seen in reference to admission. For the present the rehearsals for the male chorus is held Monday evening at Pickwick hall.

Sig. G. Parisi, the famous violin virtuoso, and Mr. Gus. Wagner, the mandolin soloist, were tendered a concert at Memorial Hall, on the 26th ult., and were assisted by Miss Nellie Haynes, soprano, Mr. H. Boeck, zither, and Mr. A. Epstein, accompanist. The following select programme was given: 1. Violin Solo—Rhapsody Hongroise—M. Houser, Sig. G. Parisi. 2. Soprano Solo—Scene and Prayer—Der Freischütz, Miss Nellie Haynes. 3. Mandolin Solo—Santiago Spanish Mazurka, Mr. Gus. Wagner, with zither accompaniment, Mr. H. Boeck. 4. Zither Solo—Musical Dream—H. Huber, Mr. H. Boeck. 5. Violin Solo—Air Russes—Wienawski, Sig. G. Parisi. 6. Soprano Solo—Who Knows—Cowan, Miss Nellie Haynes. 7. Mandolin Solo—Arditi—a. L. Ingenue Gavotte, as played by Th. Thomas Orchestra; b. Moszkowski's Serenade, as played by Gilmore's Band, Mr. Gus. Wagner, with zither accompaniment, Mr. H. Boeck. 8. Violin Solo—Grand Concerto—H. Ernest, Sig. G. Parisi.

The third concert of the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, Mr. George Heerich, 1st Violin, Mr. Valentine Schopp, 2d Violin, Mr. Louis Mayer, Viola, Mr. Carl Froehlich, Cello, Mr. Victor Ehling, Pianist, was given Thursday evening, March 7th, 1889, assisted by Mr. W. M. Porteous, at Memorial Hall, under the management of Bollman Bros. Co. The following programme was rendered in a manner worthy of the artists participating: I. Quartette, Dittersdorf. a. Allegro. b. Andante. c. Minuetto. d. Allegro. II. "Patria," Tito Mattei, Mr. W. M. Porteous. III. Quartette, Andante, from Op. 18, No. 5 Beethoven. IV. "The Storm-Flend," I. L. Roedel, Mr. W. M. Porteous. V. Quintette—Op. 49, Becker. 1. Allegro. 2. Adagio. 3. Allegro.

Bollman Bros.' Hall, at the S. W. corner of 11th and Olive streets, was formally opened to the public on the 21st ult. A magnificent programme that embraced some of the very first talent of the city drew out a gratifying attendance of our most cultured and music-loving people. Messrs. Charles Kunkel and E. R. Kroeger opened the programme with a duo for two pianos, "Sur un theme de Beethoven," by Camille Saint-Saens, Op. 35. Their second number was "Norma," op. 12, S. Thalberg, which was encored. Their interpretation of these works were in the highest degree artistic, with every shade of poetic feeling, admirable technical facility, purity of style and astonishing precision. Duo playing of this character is not an everyday occurrence, and there is not another city in the United States where such opportunities for hearing the grandest works in the literature of music for two pianos are offered as in St. Louis, and no two artists so well qualified have been more conscientious in their study and as successful in their rendition of such works as Messrs. Kunkel and Kroeger.

Mrs. Geo. W. Wiseman sang "Magic Song" (given in this number), by Meyer-Helmond. Her rare alto voice won its way at once, and every one evidenced a sense of great pleasure; an encore was exacted. The Mendelssohn Quintette Club, composed of Messrs. Heerich, Schopp, Mayer, Froehlich and Ehling, rendered "Spinnerleid," Holländer and "Moment Musical," Schubert. The latter was preferred, and caught the audience at once. It was given with an easy swing and charming dash; it was repeated for encore. The club also rendered "Andante" and "Allegro," Op. 107, Raff, most artistically. Mr. Ehling was at his best, and played his parts with the same bravour and dash that signalized his performance of this number last December.

Mr. Porteous sang "Bedouin's Love Song," Pinsuti, in his usual refined style, and had to respond to a vigorous demand for an encore.

Mr. Geo. Heerich played "Faust Fantasie," Sarasate. It is very difficult, but the violinist was equal to the technical requirements.

Mrs. Cunningham always can be relied upon to do entire justice to what she essays, and her solo, "Sweet Dream of Love," Grammam, was a delightful success—winning an encore.

Every lady received an elegant programme, to which was attached a sweet bouquet of flowers.

The hall is the neatest and most inviting, by far, to be found here, and does justice to the enterprise of the Bollman Bros., whose work is noticeable as always most excellent. The hall was tastefully decorated, and two baby grand Steinway pianos were used—to the delight of the audience, who received them as two beautiful and petted children are received by a proud and loving parent.

Mme. Albani Coming.—After an absence of five or six years Mme. Emma Albani-Gye returns to her native land, a noble artist bringing credit to her country and her profession. Not a singer of a few small opera roles like La Diva Patti, whose voice when not in use is wrapt up and kept from the gaze of men; Mme. Albani is a versatile worker in art's path-way, singing Handel in Crystal Palace, Dvorak in Birmingham, Gounod in London. Nature has been prodigal with her gifts to this nightingale, and they have been used generously and continuously with the enthusiasm of a true artist. Her Canadian tour was a series of triumphs. Her receipts have been from $3,000 to over $5,000, equalled only by Patti. Her United States tour began at Albany. She sang at Boston with the Symphony Orchestra, and from thence she will start on an extended tour in the West, visiting also San Francisco, and the British Columbia. Signor D. de Vivo, who has directed so many great artists, and who has been engaged as a joint manager with Mr. Lavine, will pilot this tour and no doubt to a great financial success. De Vivo says: "I am so glad to manage once more a great prima donna of the pure Italian school, and only wish that Mme. Albani would make up her mind to visit Australia, where a bonanza is waiting for her."

In private life Mme. Albani is a striking looking woman; she is tall, erect, and has a frank, open countenance, surrounded by a wealth of brown hair. Her complexion is a delicate pink and white, and when she smiles (a most winsome smile, by the way) she displays two rows of beautiful white teeth of which any woman might be proud.

When she sang in Ottawa the Parliament adjourned, so that the members might come and hear her sing. In Montreal, too, the principal officials came out to greet her. Season after season the Courts and Capitals of the Old World have vied each with the other in securing her for their festival performances in Italian, French, or German opera; Kings, Queens and Potentates have paid homage to her great talent as an artist, and her sterling and admirable qualities as a woman.

Last season she was the bright particular star of the London season of Italian opera, which was without a parallel artistically and financially for ten seasons past. In France, Italy, Russia, and Germany her success has been unabated. As an exponent of oratorio music she was long ago conceded to be without a rival.

Sig. D. de Vivo, the manager of Mme. Albani, has arranged for a series of three concerts in Music Hall on the 2d, 4th and 6th of April. Mme. Albani will be assisted by her London Concert Co., composed of Miss Grace Damion, contralto; Sig. Massini, tenor; Mr. Barrington Foote, basso; Mr. Ausorye, pianist; Mr. Barrett, flutist, and an orchestra of sixty musicians.

CITY NOTES.

Geo. Jarvis has charge of St. Peter's choir and organ. The choir is made up of boys' voices.

The principal feature of the Concert and Ball given by the Liederkranz was the piano playing of Mrs. A. Bausemer.

Mrs. Joe Griesedick sang at the Liederkranz entertainment, and was most favorably received. She is a pupil of Miss Charlotte Hax-Rosatti.

The Kate J. Brainard Ladies Quartette has added Kroeger's "All Fools' Day" to its repertoire. The quartette sang at the concert recently given by the Y. M. C. A. at East St. Louis.

All pieces contained in any copy of the Review may be had of Kunkel Bros., the publishers, or any first class music house in the country in regular sheet music form. Parties stating otherwise are falsifiers.

Miss Lilly Gavin sang "Salve Maria" by Mercadente, with violin obligato by Sig. Parisi at Balmer and Weber's Music Hall, and was received with the most marked approbation. Nothing less than a response satisfied the audience.

Mendelssohn's 95th psalm and Gounod's "Gallia" were rendered at the Church of the Messiah, the principals being Miss Ada Kalkman, soprano; Miss Minnie Bruin, alto; Mr. Chas. A. Metcalf, tenor; Arthur D. Weld, bass, and Mr. Ernest R. Kroeger, organist and director.

Piano Solo, Le Chant du Bracconier, Ritter, Miss Julia Vogt. 4. Vocal Solo, "Forbidden Music," Miss Josie Singer. 5. Piano Solo, Nocturne, Meyer-Helmond, Miss Lillian Pike. 6. # 25 ETUDES.

In the following studies, all notes or chords marked with an arrow, must be struck from the wrist.

Allegro  $\text{♩} = 100$  to  $\text{♩} = 126$ .

J. B. Duvernoy Op. 176.

Practice this study, at first, with the upper fingering for the right hand and with the first (solid chord) bass. When the exercise has been mastered with the first bass, use the second bass, which gives more variety and offers finger practice, while the first has given wrist exercise. Then the lower fingering for the right hand should be used with either bass.

This second (lower) fingering gives special and very necessary practice to the much neglected fourth finger. It must, however, be left to the judgement of the teacher, whether, considering the age, advancement and ability of the pupil, the second fingering should be practised forthwith, or at a later period.

The correspondence of Wagner with Heine and others is about to be published by Messrs. Breitkopf and Hartel. It is said that these letters will show the composer in a more favorable light than did his correspondence with Liszt, whom he was perpetually begging for small loans, the repayment of which is still "of the future."

The death is announced at Weimar, at the age of seventy-eight, of Josef Gung'l, the once famous Hungarian dance music composer and conductor. He was the son of a stocking weaver, and began life as a school-master. Among his 400 compositions his "Amoretten Tanze," "Feuer Klänge," "Soldaten Lieder" and "Schon Suschen" were highly popular.

In Nagasaki, China, lives a fire-works maker who manufactures pyrotechnic birds of great size that, when exploded, sail life-like through the air and perform the same movements exactly like living birds. The secret of making these wonderful things has been in the possession of the oldest male child of the family of each generation for over 400 years.

Anton Devorak was the son of a poor tavern-keeper in Bohemia; nevertheless his genius for music enabled him to rise superior to his lowly and unfavorable conditions, and like a jewel of the rarest quality to shine resplendent amid meaner surroundings. The exigencies of life had often brought his father's family into a state of destitution and even to the verge of actual starvation. In the desperate straits into which they were thus occasionally plunged, he managed to furnish subsistence by means of his talent as a violinist; and with an unflinching and sublime faith that destiny would sooner or later place his musical star in the ascendency, he continued to struggle on until his genius, supported by indomitable will power, placed him in the strong current of popular favor and success. To day he is acknowledged to be one of the most original and interesting of musical composers, whose works have found favor through performance in all the great cities of enlightened Christendom.

The One O'Clock Club was entertained by Miss Emma Barney, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E.

One of the most striking evidences of the wonderful growth and prosperity of the retail dry goods trade in the West is that presented by the house of Nugent Bros. Its new quarters at Washington avenue and St. Charles street compare with any in the entire country, nothing having been overlooked that can contribute to the comfort of either patrons or employees—the latter fact speaking volumes for the firm whose liberality and disinterestedness are not surpassed. The house fronts on Broadway and on Washington avenue. Its aisles are very broad, giving patrons easy way. All improvements in light are added—two large machines furnishing same. The house, throughout, is finished and furnished in the most elegant style. Its cash register is the most complete in the United States. Seventy delivery wagons are constantly at work for this tremendous business, for every order receives immediate attention, whether by mail or otherwise. Four elevators are employed—three for passengers and one for freight—while the employees have one for their special use. Four floors are laden with the choicest selections that cash and taste can procure. No article is allowed to linger in the house under any cost. Everything is the newest, while the most reasonable prices prevail. To enumerate special lines—such as cloaks, corsets, ladies' underwear, curtains, draperies, quilts, upholstering goods, house furnishing goods, etc., etc., etc.—would fill a catalogue. But the enterprise of this firm will continue to make it in the future, as it has in the past, a centre for the most desirable goods at the most desirable prices.

The Swedish National Ladies' Octette, assisted by the humorist, imitator and character sketch artist, Mr. Edmund T.

Phelan, gave a concert at Entertainment Hall, Monday evening, March 25th. The Octette has received the highest praise from Eastern cities, and the readings and sketches of Mr. Phelan were delightful.

The Robert Emmet anniversary celebration at Entertainment Hall was attended by a very large audience. The programme included a piano duo of Irish airs, Mrs. Silverburg and Thomas Moore; "The Minstrel Boy," Geo. Wiseman; "Kathleen Mavourneen," Miss Martin; "Erin, Oh, Erin," Edward Dierkes; "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," Mrs. Cunningham; "Eileen Mavourneen," Edward Dierkes; "The Pretty Girl Milking Her Cow," Miss Martin; "Last Rose of Summer," Mrs. Cunningham. The exercises closed with the audience singing "God Save Ireland."

One of the most pleasant home concerts of the month, was "an evening with the modern European composers," given by Miss Nellie Strong, at her music rooms on Leffingwell ave. The young lady was in her happiest frame of mind and played with great spirit and abandon. She was ably assisted by Mrs. A. D. Cunningham, soprano, Mrs. Mattie Hardey, contralto, Mr. Schoen, violinist, and her three talented pupils, Misses Nohl, Vieths and Baugh.

A GRAND TREAT IN STORE.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 50c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Hospital Remedies.—What are they? The growth of intelligence in medical matters has given rise to a demand for a class of genuine, reliable medicine. The opportunity of the ignorant quack, who grew rich curing everything out of a single bottle has passed. To supply satisfactorily this demand this list of remedies has been created. They are the favorite prescriptions of the most famous medical practitioners of the day, gathered from the hospitals of London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. Prescriptions which cost the patients of these specialists from $25 to $100 are here offered prepared and ready for use at the nominal price of ONE DOLLAR EACH. Not one of them is a cure all; each one has only the reasonable power of curing a single disease, and each one keeps its contract. Sufferers from Catarrh, Diseased Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Fever and Ague, Neuralgia, Female Weakness, Leucorrhoea or Nervous Debility, should send stamp for descriptive catalogue to Hospital Remedy Co., 303-2 West King St., Toronto, Canada. If your druggist does not keep these remedies remit price and we will send direct.

CATARRH CURED.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren St., New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.
